Proceedings Are a Repetition of the Two Former Days of the Hearing.

A constant repetition of the testi mony given the day before, and the day before that, characterized the two and a half-hour session of the labor injunction case of the master plumbers against the striking union plumbers in Judge M. L. Ritchie's division of the district court Saturday forenoon. The defense, for some legal reason, is putting every union plumber in the city on the stand, and as they all testify to practically the same thing, the proceedings were dull and uninteresting to a decree.

Each witness denied that he had seen or known of any violence or destruction of property whatever, and that the plumbers' union did not approve of any but legal means of handling its strike or its men, and that its attitude at all times and under all circumstances toward non-union strike breakers and the employers was always well within the law. The testimony of President R. D. Evans of the union on Friday was practically repeated over and over again, both on Friday and throughout the half-day session Saturday. Each witness denied that he had

The court announced that the case will occupy one or two hours Monday forenoon, after which time arrangements will be made to hear the arguments as to whether or not the injunction now in effect against the striking plumbers shall remain in force till the final hearing of the case, some three months hence, or shall be dissolved. Definite dates will probably be announced by the court on Monday concerning when the arguments will be heard.

Interesting Programme Arranged for Twenty-Third Anniversary.

Founders' day will be observed at the Latter-day Saints university, Monday, with a programme of exercises befitting the occasion. The event will be the celebration of the twenty third anniversary of the establishment of the school. The university was started twenty-three years ago in the base ment of the old social hall, on State street. The first class contained about eighty pupils, and was under the instruction of Willard Done. That was in 1886. In the following year the faculty was increased by the addition of one. Daniel Harrington, now a wellknown attorney, was, Mr. Done's as sistant. In 1888, Joseph Nelson, now of the Saltair company and a prominent man in banking and business cir cles, was Mr. Done's associate.

From that time onward the university prospered and grew to be the institu-tion which it now is. The first of the big buildings on Main street, opposite the temple, was erected in 1900, and the other structures that go to make up the collection were added at vari-exercises in Barratt Dall. Opening chorus—Hail, Dear L. D. S. U School.

Every woman strives to acquire and preserve a clear, faultless, rose and hily complexion. This is apparently the height of the feminine ambition. No more fallacions epigram was ever penned than the one which says that "beauty is only skin deep"; and no greater mistake can possibly be made in endeavoring to gain a clear, pretty complexion, entirely free from pimples, blackheads and other skin blem ishes, than the use of cosmetics, powders, lemon juice, cold cream, electric massage and various other treatments, which aim at the complexion alone, and have no effect whatever on the blood or on the general system.

whenever you see a person with a clear, flawless complexion, you may be assured that its perfection depends, not on the local application of the many fad treatments on the market, but exclusively upon a pure, wholesome con-dition of the blood, and upon its ac-tive, vigorous circulation through the FOR $20,000 DAMAGES

An action to recover $20,000 damages for the death of her husband was begun in the United States district court Saturday by Mrs. Alice B. Beckstead against the Gilson Asphaltum company Mrs. Beckstead is the widow of Maurice Beckstead, and the administrator of his estate. According to the allegations contained in the complaint. Beckstead, on June 25, 1909, while at work in the Dragon mine, in Uintah le died within two days.

The complaint sets forth that Beckstead was driving a heavily-leaded car of ore, and that he attempted to stop the ear on an incline in order that he might open a door in a tunnel to permit the ear to pass through. The door swung inward. The car, not being provided with brakes, failed to remain stationary where Beckstead had stopped it, but ran down upon him, squeezing him against the door and fatally injuring.

Treating The Wrong Disease

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or over-busy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality they are all only symptoms caused by some weakness or derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better by reason of the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured." Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system.

It is made of native American medicinal roots without the use of alcohol and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.
